Fifth count:

Nature of the Offense: Sheltering [a fugitive], an offense under Section 57 of the Security Provisions Order (Judea and Samaria) (No. 378), 5730-1970.

CONFIDENTIAL

02:009154

Details of the Offense: The abovementioned Defendant, while in the area, during the months of March and April 2002, aided and gave shelter to any person who had committed an offense under the security legislation, or who was engaging or had engaged in any action whose purpose was to undermine public safety, the safety of IDF forces and soldiers and maintaining public order or who was reasonably suspected to have done so, as follows:

The Defendant hid her brother and [REDACTED] in her home for twenty six days. The Defendant also sent her husband to Jenin to take a birth certificate in the name of [REDACTED] from there, the person whom [REDACTED] had impersonated, in order to assist [REDACTED] in impersonating him. The Defendant's husband [REDACTED] traveled to Jenin and obtained said document.

Ultimately, [REDACTED] was rearrested on May 3, 2002, by IDF forces in the home of the Defendant.

Sixth Count:

Nature of the Offense: Possession of a firearm, an offense under Section 53 (A) (1) of the Security Provisions Order (Judea and Samaria) (No. 378), 5730-1970.

Details of the Offense: The abovementioned Defendant, while in the area, in April 2002 or thereabouts, possessed a firearm without a permit certificate that was issued by or on behalf of a military commander, as follows:

When he was hiding in the home of the Defendant, military operative [REDACTED] brought his pistol to her home, which he had hidden prior to his first arrest.

██████████ asked the Defendant to travel with the Suicide Terrorist, the young woman ██████████, to carry out the attack, as the Defendant was wearing trousers and her head was uncovered. The Defendant entered the vehicle and sat in the rear seat next to the suicide terrorist. ██████████ sat in the front next to the driver of the vehicle. ██████████

██████████ gave the suicide terrorist a Koran. About two hundred meters before the Kalandia checkpoint, the driver, ██████████ stopped the vehicle, requested a kiss from the suicide terrorist and the Defendant and the suicide terrorist and ██████████ got out of the vehicle. ██████████ took a taxi and asked the driver to drive them by bypassing the A-Ram checkpoint, and paid the taxi driver NIS 50 in exchange. ██████████ also purchased flowers, which she gave to the suicide terrorist. The Defendant, the suicide terrorist and ██████████ passed the A-Ram checkpoint on foot, bypassing the inspection by IDF soldiers. Thereafter, the three boarded another taxi and ██████████ asked the taxi driver to take them to Yaffo Street in Jerusalem because they wanted to celebrate Mother's Day and they did not have Israeli identity cards, so that he would take them on roads on which there were no IDF checkpoints. The Defendant, ██████████ and the suicide terrorist walked along Yaffo Street in order to find a crowded place in which the suicide terrorist would blow himself up, causing the deaths of many civilians. During their walk, the Defendant instructed ██████████ to walk behind them and not next to them because she was dressed in traditional Arab clothing and in order not to raise suspicion against them.

The Defendant noticed that there were many people in the street and replied to ██████████ that this was a good place for carrying out a suicide attack in order to cause the deaths of many civilians. ██████████ agreed with the Defendant and sent the suicide bomber to carry out the planned attack. The suicide bomber asked the Defendant and ██████████ to go back and went to detonate the explosive belt that was on his person in order to cause the deaths of many civilians. The Defendant and ██████████ walked away and after a few minutes, at about 4:20 p.m., the suicide terrorist detonated the explosive belt that was on his person in King George Street in Jerusalem.

As a result of the explosion, three civilians were killed and 81 more were injured. In addition, a large amount of property was damaged.

The Defendant heard the sound of the explosion and understood that the suicide terrorist Mohamed Hashaika had detonated himself.

CONFIDENTIAL

02:009155

The Defendant stayed put when the suicide terrorist, Mohamed Hashaika, detonated himself and pieces of the victims flesh hit her. Because they thought that she had been injured, citizens brought her into a store that was nearby, where they washed her face. Later, Magen David Adom ambulance forces wanted to take the Defendant [for medical care] but she refused and left the site. After she walked the streets of the city of Jerusalem for two and a half hours, she traveled to her home by Sherut [shared] taxi. She arrived at home in the evening hours.

Before she entered her home, the Defendant called the military operative [REDACTED] and updated him on the execution of the attack. The Defendant was interested in the fate of [REDACTED], whom she lost sight of and [REDACTED] calmed her by telling her that [REDACTED] had arrived in Ramallah a long time before the Defendant.

Two days later, the Defendant traveled to the home of [REDACTED] and reported to him about the implementation of the attack. [REDACTED] also attended this meeting. [REDACTED] updated the Defendant, saying that the young woman who had been with her, [REDACTED] had returned safely.
